I  Programming

...but I feel misunderstood

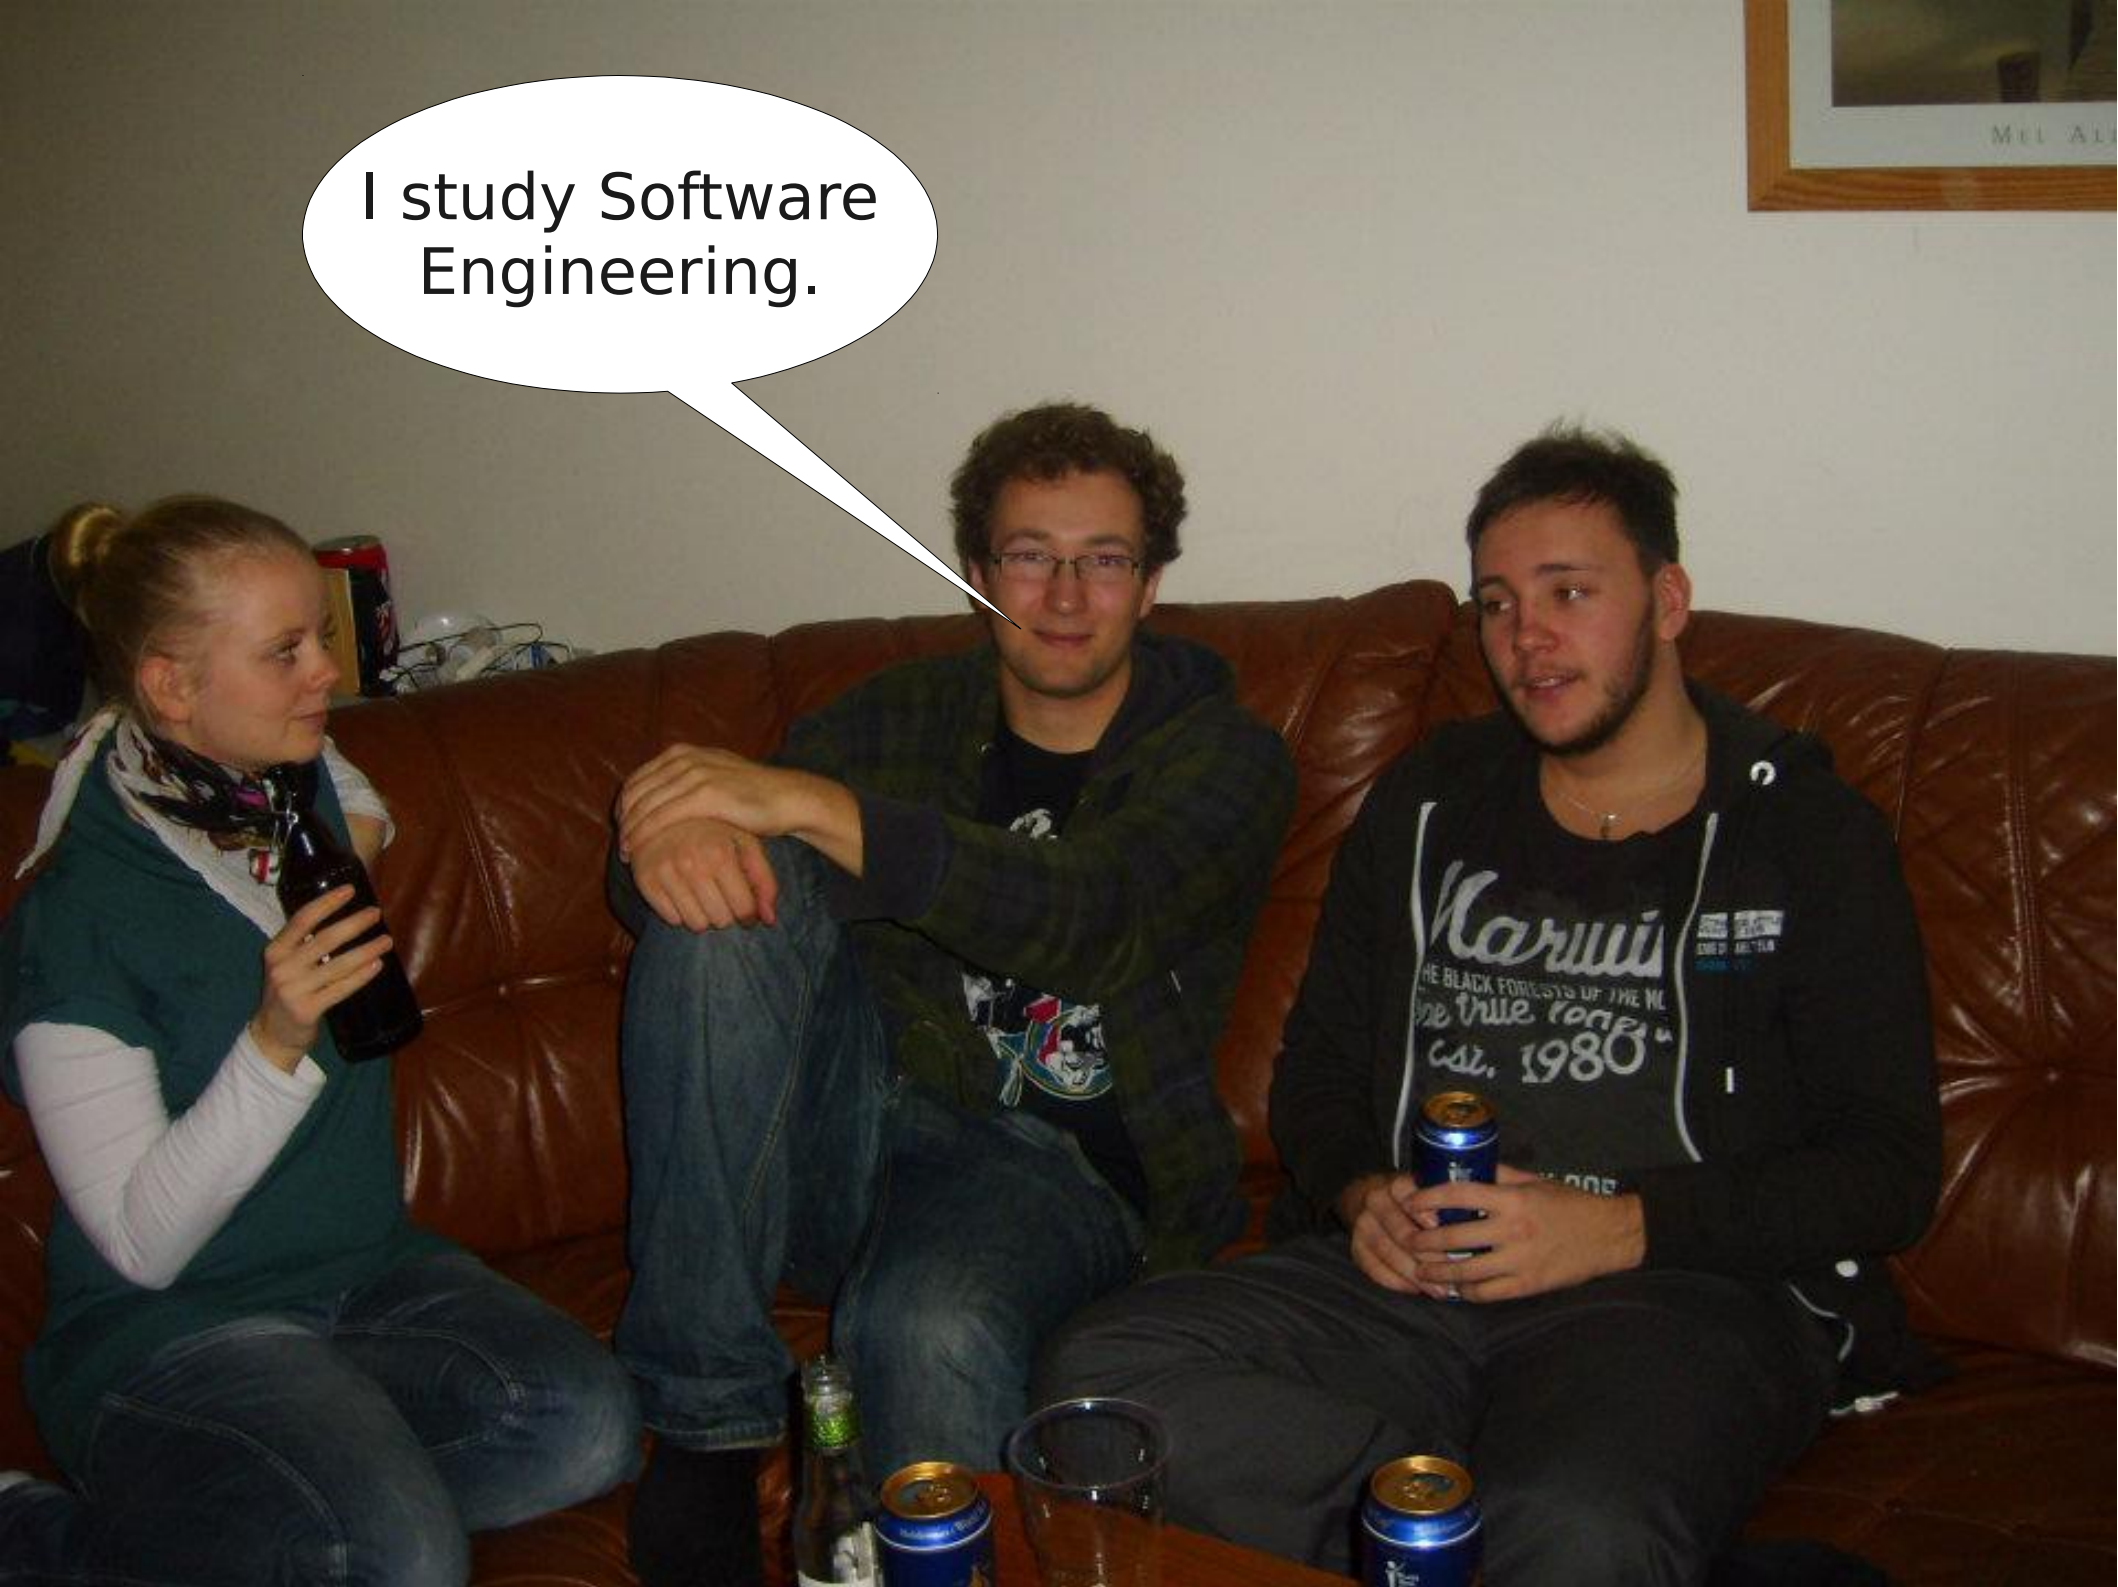

A typical situation

So Tobi,
what do you do?

I study Software Engineering.

Oh. So you're the lonely guy, sitting in the cellar?

WRONG!

Communication is everywhere...

The Team

The Customer

Pair Programming

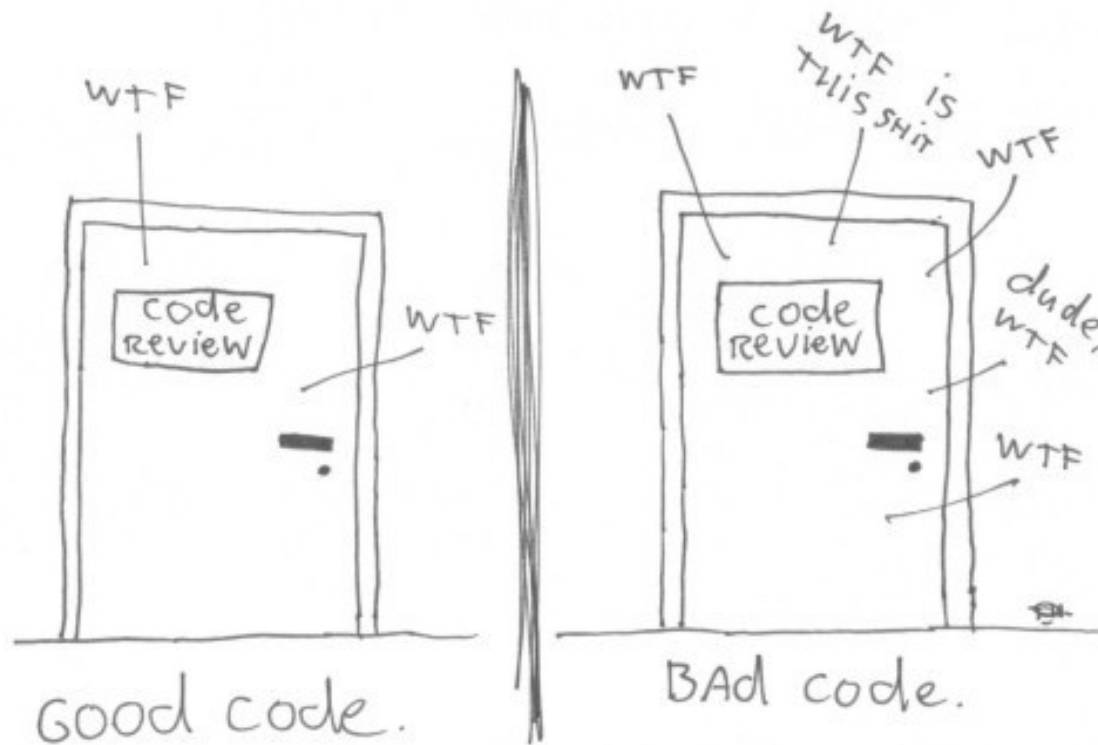

The Code

“(...) when you program, you have to think about how someone will read your code, not just how a computer will interpret it.”

Kent Beck

The Code

The ONLY VALID MEASUREMENT OF CODE QUALITY: WTFs/MINUTE

And so much more...

Not everyone works like this...

Not everyone works like
this...

...but there enough tech
companies out there.

So you like to...

Communicate

Collaborate

Solve problems

Work in a constantly evolving field

Build something awesome

Congratulations!

Software Development
might be just your thing!

Thanks!
